

TILGHMAN'S CONDITION

THE ONLY CURE FOR THE "OFFICIAL TOURING ROAD"

THE TOURING CARS THAT PASSED THROUGH Ocala on Tuesday, a full account of which appeared in these columns, reached Gainesville at 5 o'clock and on till 9 Tuesday.

In speaking to a reporter of the Gainesville Sun of the condition of the roads between Tampa and Gainesville, Mr. Regan said:

"The roads are in fairly good condition, considering the time in which those interested at various points along the route had to get them ready. From Tampa to Plant City there is a fine paved road; from Plant City to Dade City there is some pavement, but a great deal of straw, but this straw has apparently been carefully selected and laid, with the result that the roadway is good. There is no hard road between Brooksville and Inverness, but the highway has been well provided with pine straw, which made an excellent roadway, flexible and easy. Between Inverness and Dunnellon the road is paved, but there are some new stretches recently 'worked over' which are exceptionally smooth and fine. From Dunnellon to Ocala, paved, but in poor condition. From Ocala to Gainesville the road is very good, especially for a few miles out of Ocala, which is one of the finest stretches for about eight miles in the country—hard, smooth and reliable. There are several short gaps between Ocala and Gainesville, but these are well provided with straw, which makes the running comparatively easy. From Wacahoota to Gainesville, in Alachua county, the road is especially good."

OF COURSE WE DID

Some few weeks ago we published an editorial called "Isms."

The Pensacola News wants to know whether in writing it we did not have one particular class of tax payers of course we did.

But that was not all we had in mind by upwards of a long shot.

We particularly had in mind the unjust, unreasonable and outrageous law enacted by the last legislature, which abrogated personal rights; which set aside that maxim of the common law which has been in existence for centuries, namely, that "a man has a perfect right to do what he will with his own, so that he does no injury to his neighbors;" which was vindictive because confined to one single vocation, and which was unjust, cruel and oppressive because only the prohibition amendment in mind. We refer to the law prohibiting newspaper managers from receiving mileage books from railroad companies as pay for advertising.

We had in mind that monumental exhibition of wisdom in the law for the protection of the gopher.

Also, that statesmanlike production which provided that tourists were permitted to shoot alligators on the Oklawaha river.

That Websterian law for the protection of the diamond back tarpon.

But, O Lord! why enumerate?

Time and space fail us. Take the statutes of Florida and they tell the story which prompted the writing of the editorial referred to.—Jasper News.

Honesty in Advertising

Among the steps of progress to be recorded in our young national career are the increased honesty and diminished dishonesty of commercial advertising. The pleasing improvement in "dry goods" advertisements has reached the remarkable degree of at least one merchant setting forth the relative advantages and disadvantages of two articles offered to the public. This Brutus of business says, concerning one kind of raincoat, that it is "not absolutely water-tight," though "proof against any ordinary shower." The other kind, he tells you, "is water-tight," but, since the body's heat and moisture do not escape, this accumulation "dampens the inside of the coat, besides making the wearer uncomfortably hot." Is it not rather a new thing for a trader to pay money to a newspaper for telling the public the defects of things he wants to sell?—Collier's Weekly.
